

Name: _____
Provided By: TheTeachersCorner.net Crossword Maker

Unit II: Crossword Puzzle

Please complete the crossword puzzle below using your notes from Unit II.

Across:

1. Lines created to describe objects that exist in our world (2 words).
2. Crossed parallel lines used in an artwork to create value.
3. An implied line created where several objects or figures in a row are loosely connected by our eyes.
6. This type of line implies movement, tension, and

Down:

2. This type of line implies fun, whimsical movement.
4. Lines that define the inner and outer edges of an object plus any highlights or shadows present (2 words).
5. Lines found in very abstract and non-objective works that do not describe real objects (2 words).

drama.

9. Using the four properties of line to create different moods and emotions (2 words).
11. This type of line implies height, stability, and dignity.
12. An element of art that is a continuous mark made on a surface.
14. A property of line that deals with how long the line is.
16. Lines that are indicated indirectly in artworks through edges, closure, or lines of sight (2 words).
18. The type of line implies anger, loudness, frustration, and stress.
19. The four _____ of line are: length, width, direction, and surface.
21. This type of line implies calmness, peace, and balance.
22. A property of line that deals with the texture of the line.
7. Lines with little variation that describe the outer edges of an object and appear flat.
8. A property of line that deals with where the line moves.
10. A property of line that deals with how wide the line is.
13. Parallel lines used in an artwork to create value.
15. This type of implied line is created when the viewer looks in the direction of a person or animal's gaze in an artwork (3 words).
17. A type of implied line created where one shape ends and another begins, or there is a change in color or value.
20. Lines that are produced to express an idea, mood, or quality (2 words).